

The following companies are among those who have made the pledge by committing a combination of equity, employee time and financial support to nonprofits that are demonstrating a positive social impact

Learn more at makethepledge.org

Airbanq is a social mobile service that enables households to receive secure, alternative financial services from within their trusted communities, conveniently and economically

Akoono develops products that empower business-to-business marketers to create better content, generate more leads, and enable content targeting and personalization

Archively is a platform for researching people and building information profiles, designed for recruiters, sourcers, salespeople, and marketing professionals

Breezeworks provides a smartphone application to manage businesses by using integrated scheduling, customer communication, invoicing, and payments

Cassie Gruenstein Consulting helps changemakers build capacity and financial support for innovative missions and programs

Causecast creates technology to connect companies and their employees with the causes they care about, providing an efficient means to set up, manage, and track workplace giving and volunteering

EcoVolt Finance simplifies the solar sales process by offering a better, simpler, cheaper financing model with more inherent value for 3rd-party solar investors.

EduDream helps people accomplish their educational dreams by offering information, courses, a mentorship network, scholarships, planning tools, loans and P2P investment in education.

Half Moon Bay Brewing Company is a warm oceanfront restaurant and brew pub at Pillar Point Harbor in Princeton-by-the-Sea, CA, four miles north of Half Moon Bay

Initiativv is advancing the initiative and referendum process, empowering all citizens to actively participate regardless of disability, language barriers, or socio-economic status

Junyo builds solutions that help districts and schools enhance learning outcomes, including a classroom toolset used by K-12 teachers and schools to personalize student learning

Kids Gift Club provides a platform for children's toy sales as a vehicle to help seniors keep economically and socially active while fostering connections among families

Kismatic accelerates enterprise microservices transformations with production support for Docker and Kubernetes

Lendlayer is a social lending platform that partners directly with the top accelerated learning programs to finance students while they acquire software development skills

Lex Machina discovers and communicates meaningful patterns in litigation data that are used by corporate counsel, law firm attorneys, and their staff

NEEV is a fair trade, earth-friendly social venture collaborating with artisan cooperatives to bring home furnishings, linens, and accessories to the marketplace and to empower more women

Obindo is a platform that finds the most important data in email messages and adds it to other applications, saving time and creating opportunities for more productivity

Optimizely is a website optimization platform that enables user testing to make it easy for teams to discover, to create, and to deliver the best customer experience

Publet is a SaaS platform to create, amplify and track digital research and collateral

Rally Team is a service that helps employees find interesting internal opportunities by offering an employee empowerment platform to support professional and personal growth

Recognize is a peer-to-peer employee recognition platform that includes an application integrated with Yammer that allows workers to show appreciation for their colleagues and staff

Return.ly is a web and mobile solutions connecting stores, carriers, logistics, and CRM to offer shoppers the best product return flow

SEED is the world's first business banking API, allowing you to manage your banking on mobile, on the web, or entirely with code

Team Builder Ventures is an early-stage venture capital fund helping founders build and scale world-class teams, investing in enterprise software and consumer internet startups

The Town Kitchen is a community-driven food business that sources, crafts, and delivers locally-sourced lunch through a community of growers, food makers, chefs, and youth

Vayable is an online marketplace enabling people to discover, buy, and sell unique travel experiences, activities, and extended trips

Wedifique is wedding industry innovation that identifies bridal style through an interactive questionnaire to match individuals with curated retailers

Worklife provides a web and mobile application for highly productive, engaging meetings that offers collaborative, real-time note taking and automates meeting best practices

Zoomforth helps organizations easily send messages with multimedia, enabling recruitment and sales teams to communicate more personally, visually, and effectively